Woman this is WAR! Gender, Slavery, & the Evangelical Caste System

By Jocelyn Andersen

“Her non-shove-it-down-your-throat style is a breath of fresh air. Other books I have read on gender roles are no more than large to do lists-and how bad you are if you don’t. They are exhausting: but Andersen’s book gives rest and healing, even though it’s about something as awful as the war against women.” Waneta Dawn, Author of, *Behind the Hedge

More than an exposé of errors traditionally taught regarding gender roles. This book is a powerful revelation of the stand we must take against a doctrine that immobilizes over one half of the evangelical Church due to gender role restrictions.

“Woman this is WAR!...,” takes a new look at old arguments traditionally used to keep men and women enslaved in illegitimate bondage based on sex. Just as the Bible did not condone the sin of slavery based on skin color, it also does not condone a slavery-like caste system based on gender. Jesus said we would know the truth and the truth would set us FREE. Andersen challenges Christian men and women to embrace and appreciate God-given gender differences without giving place to haughty spirits of superiority, degrading feelings of inferiority, hatred, prejudice, fear of one another’s differences, or the sinful need to either be in charge or to submit in an idolatrous manner.

About the Author

Jocelyn Andersen is a Christian business woman, author, and speaker who does not take no for an answer. In 2006, after writing a book based on her experience and insights into navigating the minefield of domestic violence, she was ignored by most literary agents and then bluntly told by one that what she had to say needed to be heard, but no Christian publisher would touch her because she challenged the advice and motives of well known and well respected names in the Christian Family media/publishing industry. Not a problem. Jocelyn started her own publishing company.

Although finances for promoting her book were slim, its impact was immediate, and the book gained much deserved media attention. Jocelyn continues to receive testimonials to the difference Woman Submit! has made in the lives of those who have read it. Through determination and the grace of God, Jocelyn successfully turned the lemons of domestic violence and professional rejection into lemonade! She is passionate about making a positive difference in the lives of others.
